What is the National Redress Scheme?

The National Redress Scheme has been created in response to recommendations by the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse. The Royal Commission listened to thousands of people about the abuse they experienced as children. The abuse happened in orphanages, Children's Homes, schools, churches and other religious organisations, sports clubs, hospitals, foster care and other institutions

The Scheme can provide:

- ☑ Access to counselling
- ☑ A Redress payment
- ☑ A direct personal response from the institution

What We do:

The Redress Support Service (RSS) is a free service providing support, counselling and limited case management to those considering applying to the National Redress Scheme (NRS). Our service is committed to providing individualised, non-judgmental, respectful, confidential and culturally appropriate support in a safe environment.
